

The State Budget and Wisconsin Libraries

Presentations by

Ron McCabe

President-elect

Wisconsin

Library

Association

Ron McCabe is Director of McMillan Memorial Library in Wisconsin Rapids and author of Civic Librarianship: Renewing the Social Mission of the Public Library, Scarecrow Press, 2001. Ron has lectured on public library development throughout the nation. He has served as a consultant to American Library Association presidents Sarah Long and Nancy Kranich.

To encourage understanding and advocacy, Ron is now available for public presentations on “The State Budget and Wisconsin Libraries” at no cost to libraries or other sponsoring groups in Wisconsin. No honorarium or travel reimbursement is requested.

Ron’s nonpartisan presentation will describe the role that libraries play in expanding educational opportunities and the impact of the proposed 2011-2013 State Budget on this important work.

To schedule an event or request more information, email Ron McCabe at rmccabe@wctc.net or call him at 715-422-5128.

Sponsored by Wisconsin Library Association