

The Wisconsin Logging Book, 1839-1939

Front Matter	1
Contents	3
Daylight in the swamp	5
In the woods and "on the haul"	12
Chain loading	20
"Ginpole Johnson" and the woods jammer	24
The "hoisting machine"	30
Birth of the cant hook and peavey	36
The crosscut saw	41
Of sleds and sleighs	42
The icing tankers	54
The "Lima Shay" engine	59
Railroad logging	67
Life in camp	82
No talking at table	95
Sunday in camp	100
Thermometers abolished	103
The company town	107

The skidding tong	118
Rivers for transportation	119
The Wolf River drives	128
Bay boom	143
The "Chippeway" drive	149
Beef slough	168
The boom companies	180
Famous log jams	182
A river myth	188
The river rafting days	190
Making of a raft	195
The risks they took	202
Pilot fees and charges	206
Whipsaw to up-and-down saw	213
Circular saw to bandsaw	223
The bull slide	232
The greening of Wisconsin	282
Picture credits	289
Bibliography	293

